

Preface

CAPMAS hereby presents the new version of Egypt, "Statistical Yearbook" (2015). This one is version no. 106 in this series. It includes detailed demographic, social, economic and environmental data. We hope that it satisfy all data users' needs especially decision makers either in government or private sector, researchers, students and different studies and research centers.

Such version is being improved in order to comply with the international standards of data dissemination designed to meet user's need to obtain data, to understand and benefit from them. In addition, to unify the statistical issues of the statistical agencies in terms of form and content of designing the statistical tables and graphics.

We'd like to take this opportunity to inform all data users that CAPMAS annually releases the "Statistical Yearbook" regularly in September, whereas "Egypt in Figures" releases in March, which includes brief data on some important fields that are included in the Statistical Yearbook in a form that facilitate accessing and saving the data. CAPMAS also releases "Statistical Abstract" in June and it includes only main data of important fields.

CAPMAS express its sincere appreciation to all co-operated organizations that provided data in their fields of profession either governmental, public, public business, private sectors and everyone contributed in collecting the contents of this version.. CAPMAS staff welcome with pleasure receiving data users comments and suggestions to improve this publication in order to maximize its benefit and achieve the main target of issuing this publication to accelerate development of both economic and social fields.

Abo Bakr El-Gendy
President of Central Agency for Public
Mobilization and Statistics

September 2015